Cameron Crawford

PEREGRINEPROGRAM is pleased to present Babies. Babies. No Babies. (armpit) by Chicago-based artist Cameron Crawford. The exhibition's single work simultaneously and in equal measure recalls a chair, a shaped-canvas painting, entangled insects, and pine-needle basketry. Crawford's work, after which the exhibition is titled, Babies. Babies. No Babies. (armpit), exists as an extended, infantile consideration of infants and other impossibilities. Crawford is often enigmatic, but never vague. Working across a wide range of media, producing objects, books, and texts, Crawford explores the limits and ethics of understanding and privacy.

Cameron Crawford has a BFA in Fiber and Material Studies from The School of the Art Institute of Chicago and an MFA in Art Theory and Practice from Northwestern University. He has exhibited internationally, most recently in the two-person show Almanza/Crawford at New Capital in Chicago. His work was featured in Manual for Treason, published by the Sharjah Biennial. He was awarded The Claire Rosen & Samuel Edes Foundation Prize for Emerging Artists in 2011 and his work is included in several private collections.
